

Associate Wanted Cork, Ireland

Douglas Chiropractic is looking for a well motivated, enthusiastic and confident associate to join our expanding clinic in Cork (Ireland).

The successful applicant will be keen to work with us at our existing clinic and be fully supported in developing a patient base here, with the help, training and support of our team. Full marketing support and mentoring will be provided.

Who are we looking for?

- The successful applicant must have a keen interest in rehabilitation and will work alongside a full-time chiropractor and sports rehabilitation trainer.
- Applicants must have excellent communication skills, good personal integrity and a passion for chiropractic.
- Applicants must be a skilled diversified adjustor.

This position would be suited to a new graduate or experienced chiropractor. Applicants must be prepared to actively participate in marketing. The job would be five days per week including Saturday mornings.

We would ideally like someone to start in mid October 2011.

If interested please send CVs and a passport photograph to: info@douglaschiropractic.ie

<http://www.douglaschiropractic.ie/>