

CHIROPRACTIC OPPORTUNITY IN ITALY

My name is Paolo Saletta, I am a Physiotherapist and Osteopath and have my own studio (see photos) in Casale Monferrato a small town (about 35.000 inhabitants) among the gentle hills of Piedmont in the North-West part of Italy and within easy reach of the sea.

I learnt chiropractic with Dr. Hans Greissing D.C., a great chiropractor and graduate of Palmer College. He is a pioneer of chiropractic in Italy, who also developed Zilgrei self therapy of which I am an Instructor, and a soft type of chiropractic technique.

I am looking for a female chiropractor with a gentle adjusting touch who would like to gain further experience in Italy. Some knowledge of the language would be beneficial.
